Hindu Pilgrims Will Purge Their Sins Sun's Eclipse During

By V. M. NAIR

New Delhi, June 27. Nearly half a million pilgrims from all over India will plunge into the sacred waters of the lake at Kurukshetra, 90 miles north of Delhi, to cleanse themselves of their sins during the eclipse of the sun on Wednesday.

At 6.26 p.m. on that day, as the eclipse becomes visible, the milling multitudes assembled on the dusty banks of the three-quarter mile long artificial lake will wade waist deep into the waters chanting sacred words and raising their cupped hands in prayer that the sun may overcome the demon god "Rahu", who is "swallowing" him and restore his light to the earth again.

MITHEN you can win a trick W either in your own hand or in the dummy, it is usually wise to base your choice on where you want the lead to be at the next trick. In today's hand, for example, South won the opening lead of the queen of spudes in his own hand because he wanted to lead a trump towords dummy's king.

This might have been a fine idea except for the fact that West had bid spades. It was quite reasonable to suppose that West had a six-card buit, in which cose East could have only a singleton spade. In short, South should have been alert to the danger of a spade ruff.

When South won the first trick with the ace of spades and led a trump. West took the nee of hearts and continued with the Jack of spades. Declarer put up dummy's king of spades, but East ruffed. West eventually got in with the queen of clubs to eash a spade trick, defeating the contract.

South should have avoided this defent by winning the first trick with dummy's king of spades. South can then easily get to his own hands with a diamond in order to start the trumps. West takes the first round of trumps with the ace and leads another spade, but now East can do no damage.

If East ruffs, South can play his low spade and save the ace. If East diseards, South wins

MEMORIAL TO A GREAT CRICKETER

A membrial to the Essex and England fast bowler, Kenneth Tarnes, was unveiled by fortiter Efigland captain G. O. ("Gubby") Allen on the Gallows Ground corner, Romford, Essex, on June 19.

Farnes had often played for his club, Gidea Park, on this ground before he was killed while serving with the Royal Air Force in the last war. Tudeh Raises Its Ugly Head In Persia Again

Teheran, June 27.

Persia's Tudeh (Communist) Party whose chiefs scattered and fled after Royalist forces overthrew Dr Mohammed Mossadegh last August has recovered sufficiently to make a fresh bid for power.

Last year the Tudeh Party hoped to glide into power on the wave of popular support for Dr Mossadegh's anti-foreign and nationalisation policies. Now its primary tactical target is the oil settlement which Persia is negotiating with western oil companies.

The United Kingdom continues to carn a surplus on its balance of payments while even if allowance is made for the "once-for-all" nature of the recent influx of gold, central reserves have continued to climb steadily.

Another Good Week On London Stock Exchange

From Our Own Correspondent

London, June 27. The London Stock Exchange was in another of its record-breaking moods last week.

Following the precious week's sharp recovery, prices continued to move strongly ahead and by mid-week the index of industrial ordinary shares was at a new all-time peak. Since then profittaking has clipped some of the gains but prices generally closed at higher levels.

The feature of the giltedged market has been the revival of demand for undated Government stocks on the theory that these would have to follow the dated stocks upward. In the first two days of the week 21/2 per cent Consols advanced 18/9 to £66-15 and 31/2 per cent War Loan put on £1-3-9 to £87-15. They dropped 1/3 each on Wednes-

Indo-China Military Talks

Paris, June 28.

Talks which may have a decisive effect on the Indo-China war begin today at Ninh Liet, a village 25 miles north of Hanoi, between Vietminh and French military representatives.

Two Coroper's Inquests were held before Mr May on Monday. The first was on the body of William Raby, a soldier of the 59th Regiment, who committed suicide, by shooting himself while on sentry at the sea side to the rear of the Barracks.

The other inquest was on that of Joseph Curier, formerly clerk to Mr McSwyney the lawyer, and who was killed by the falling in of part of a Seaman's Boarding House, caused by a landslip at the back of the premises. Deceased was at supper with seven or eight other boarders when the neeldent happened, and was found dead, with his head crushed between a heavy beam and the sideboard. The jury seem to have considered no blame attachable to any one, for they returned a verdict of Accidental Death.

PRISONERS ESCAPE Four European prisoners escaped from the gaol yesterday, but were traced to the village of Chim-sa-tsoy on the opposite shore, where two of them were taken by the police this morning, and have been relodged in prison. The other two had returned to Hongkong in search of food, and are as yet at large, but they will probably be secured in the course of the day. They told the Chinese they were American subjects, and had protection come there for against the British, who were trying to compel them to join the extra police force. names are, Edward Neill, sentenced to transportation for life, for muliny in the Kelso. We should be glad to have to announce piracies in the neighbourhood of the island as equally rare with offences on shore; but the reports in another column only too well prove the contrary to be the case; and the rumours of immense pirate fleets which occasionally reach the cars of foreigners, combined with the fact of a number of smuggling boats having been lately captured in Canton river, have determined the owners of the Opium Receiving Vessels at Cumsingmoon to remove them to a place of greater safety; for which they are said to have chosen the Typo, near Macao, instead of Hongkong, a much more likely anchorage, and where they would be perfectly secure. After a good deal of persuasion, as well be seen in another part of this paper.
